

Rewards at JCoSS

Reward Number	Level of Merit	Reward	Points
R1	Demonstration of one of the elements of Menschlichkeit	Verbal & written feedback/praise from the class teacher	5
R2	Demonstration of one of the elements of Menschlichkeit	Verbal & written feedback/praise from the class teacher	10
R3	Students demonstrate significant progress, exemplary skills or go above and beyond when exhibiting one of the elements of menschlichkeit. This could be through an impressive piece of work or regularly helping others.	Postcard Home from the class teacher	15
R4	Students use and implement multiple Menschlichkeit qualities	Nomination for student of the month and a monthly letter home from the head of faculty	20
R5	Students nurture full range of talents and implement the elements of Menschlichkeit	Head teachers commendation and a half termly letter home from the assistant head teachers	25
R6	Students use and implement Menschlichkeit qualities consistently throughout a term	Termly letter home from the deputy head teachers	35
R7	Students use and implement Menschlichkeit qualities consistently throughout the entire academic year	Letter home from the Head Teacher, Invitation to the annual awards ceremony and a possible inclusion on a rewards trip	50

- Manages their organization and behaviour
- Encourages others to learn
- Nurtures full range of talents
- Spends time on learning
- Considers others opinions and feelings
- Honours our school and each other