

➤ What we are looking for

We are seeking to recruit high quality graduates with a range of personal skills with who have the potential to develop into outstanding teachers including:

- A degree in a related subject to the one you wish to teach*
- Grade C English and Maths (or equivalent)
- Self-motivation
- Willingness to learn
- Desire to develop excellence in teaching and learning
- Good communication skills, in both speech and writing, with adults and students
- Willingness to support the pluralist Jewish ethos of the school
- Commitment to equal opportunities
- Evidence of interest in working with young people
- Enthusiasm for your subject area
- Resilience and stamina
- A sense of humour and perspective

*Subject Knowledge Enhancement (SKE) is offered by the DfE if you need to brush up subject knowledge or if your degree is not in the subject you want to teach. These are offered either face to face or online and are usually free of charge, once you have been accepted a training place.

Overseas or equivalent qualifications may need to be checked by NARIC.

<https://getintoteaching.education.gov.uk/eligibility-for-teacher-training>