What parents can do to support learning	Useful links and reference materials
Test vocabulary: Use the Pearsons vocabulary guide and vocabulary list at the end of each topic of the textbook to test from Spanish to English and English to Spanish. Encourage past paper practice: Use a range from all skills from Pearson, AQA and WJEC. Download the mark scheme and the audio files. Mark your work and award grades, highlighting words not known in the transcripts. Listen to exemplars of oral commentaries to see the standard required in a role play, photo card, etc. Build strong learning routines: Make the most out of the daily class top 10's. Make up your own top 10, taking a high frequency verb such as jugar and seeing can you conjugate it across all tenses including the perfect infinitive and the present participle. You can also practice this with high frequency irregular verbs. Practice writing in three time frames in 90 words: Keep it simple. Answer the four bullet points equally using a correct tense in the Past and the Future; make sure the content does not exceed 100 words and aim for clarity. Pre learn if necessary set sentences for le weekend dernier, le weekend prochain. Practice Translation skills: use your textbook to do all the examples on offer taking notice of the hints available. Learn how to paraphrase or rephrase if necessary in order to score the marks.	https://qualifications.pearson.com BBC Bitesize: https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/examspecs/zwbhb7h languagesonline.org.uk/Spanish https://quizlet.com/
